How to Use This Toolkit

1 Print What You Need

This toolkit is modular. You don't need to print all 150+ pages at once. Start with the essentials: the Weekly Planner, Homework Tracker, and one Routine Checklist. Add tools as your student is ready.

2 The One Binder Rule

All printed pages go into ONE 2-inch zip-up binder with color-coded dividers. No accordion files, no loose folders. One binder = one system = less decision fatigue.

3 Laminate Key Pages

The Dopamine Menu, Zone Check-In, Brain Break Cards, and Bag Tags should be laminated for daily reuse. Everything else can be printed fresh weekly.

4 Start Small, Build Up

Introduce ONE new tool per week. Mastery of the planner comes before adding the Sprint Tracker. Overwhelm is the enemy of executive function.

5 Celebrate the System

The goal is not perfection — it's consistency. If the planner is used 3 out of 5 days, that's a WIN. Use the Level Up chart to reward system use, not grades.

The 5 Failure Points of ADHD Workflow

Every assignment passes through 5 stages. ADHD brains can lose work at ANY stage. This toolkit protects each one.

1. CAPTURE

Inhibition / Attention

THE PROBLEM: Student hears the assignment but is distracted — never writes it down.

TOOLKIT FIX: Landing Pad Planner: high-visibility zone for immediate entry.

2. CONSOLIDATION

Organization

THE PROBLEM: Assignment is written on loose paper or a hand, then lost.

TOOLKIT FIX: HOPS Binder System: single-entry point, One Binder rule.

3. RETRIEVAL

Working Memory

THE PROBLEM: Student gets home but forgets to check the planner or bag.

TOOLKIT FIX: Visual Triggers: Bag Tags and Door Checklists cue retrieval.

4. COMPLETION

Sustained Attention

THE PROBLEM: Student starts work but gets distracted or overwhelmed.

TOOLKIT FIX: Task Chunking: 10-minute Focus Sprints break the 'Wall of Awful'.

5. SUBMISSION

Prospective Memory

THE PROBLEM: Work is DONE but stays in the bag. Teacher marks it missing.

TOOLKIT FIX: Done & Dusted system: physical ritual of turning work in.

Binder Boot Camp Setup Guide

THE ONE BINDER RULE: Everything goes in ONE 2-inch zip-up binder. No accordion files. No loose folders. One system = less decision fatigue = fewer lost papers.

Shopping List:

- ☐ 1 zip-up 2-inch 3-ring binder
- ☐ 5 color-coded tab dividers (see next page for labels)
- ☐ 1 clear pencil pouch (zips into binder rings)
- ☐ 1 'Paper Purgatory' folder (for unsorted loose papers)
- ☐ 1 set of lined paper
- ☐ 1 set of graph paper (for math)

Setup Rules:

Tab Order:

Math (Blue) > Science (Green) > ELA (Orange) > Social Studies (Sage) > Elective (Purple)

Paper Purgatory:

Every Friday: sort ALL papers from this folder into the correct tab or recycle. No exceptions.

Pencil Pouch:

Holds: 2 pencils, 1 eraser, 1 highlighter, 1 pen. Restock every Sunday.

The Black Hole Ban:

NO papers stuffed loose in the front or back pocket. If it's not behind a tab, it doesn't exist.

Printable Subject Tab Labels

Cut along dotted lines. Tape to binder dividers.

MATH

Contains: Textbook + Worksheets + Graph Paper

SCIENCE

Contains: Notes + Labs + Handouts

ELA / READING

Backpack & Door Checklists

Laminate these and attach to your backpack / front door!

BACKPACK CHECK

(Before leaving school)

- ☐ Planner in bag?
- ☐ Homework papers in folder?
- ☐ All textbooks I need?
- ☐ Pencil pouch stocked?
- ☐ Lunch box?
- ☐ Permission slips?
- ☐ Jacket / hoodie?

DOOR CHECK

(Before leaving home)

- ☐ Backpack on?
- ☐ Homework IN the backpack?
- ☐ Lunch / lunch money?
- ☐ Water bottle?
- ☐ Keys / phone?
- ☐ Jacket if cold?
- ☐ Shoes tied?

Done & Dusted: Submission System

"If it's in my bag, it doesn't count. If it's not in the teacher's hand, IT DOESN'T EXIST." — This is the #1 rule of Done & Dusted.

The Submission Ritual:

1

Before Leaving Class

Run through the Bag Tag checklist (see next page)

2

Walking Into Class

Take homework OUT of bag FIRST — before you sit down

3

Walk to Turn-In Bin

Go DIRECTLY to the turn-in tray. Do not stop at your desk.

4

Never 'Later'

Do NOT put it on your desk 'for later.' Later means LOST.

5

Verify

Watch the paper land in the bin. Say to yourself: 'Done and dusted.'

Bag Tags — Print, Laminate & Attach!

Cut along dotted lines. Punch hole and attach to backpack zipper.

DONE & DUSTED

- ☐ Is my name on it?
- ☐ Is it FINISHED? (both sides!)
- ☐ In the FOLDER (not loose)?

The 5-Minute Plan

Before you start homework, take 5 minutes to preview your workload.

This is based on the STAND research model. Previewing reduces anxiety and helps you see the WHOLE picture before diving in.

What subjects do I have homework in today?

Which one is the HARDEST? (Do this one FIRST while your brain is fresh)

Which one is the EASIEST? (Save this for last as a reward)

How long do I THINK all homework will take? (Estimate)

What time will I START?

What will I do when I'm DONE? (Reward from Dopamine Menu)

Social Scripts

Print, laminate, and practice these!

Joining a Group

1. Walk up and stand near the group
2. Listen for 10 seconds — what are they talking about?
3. Wait for a pause or eye contact
4. Say: "Hey, can I join?" or "What are you guys doing?"
5. If YES: Join in and follow their lead
6. If NO: Say "No worries" and walk away. It's not about you.

Handling Losing

1. Take a deep breath BEFORE you speak
2. Say: "Good game" (even if it doesn't feel true yet)
3. Think: Did I have fun? Did I get better?
4. If upset: Walk away for 2 minutes to reset
5. Remember: Everyone loses. It's data, not failure.

Social Scripts

Print, laminate, and practice these!

Asking for Help

1. Try it yourself first for 2 minutes
2. Figure out WHAT you're stuck on (not just 'I don't get it')
3. Raise your hand or approach the teacher
4. Say: "I tried ____, but I'm stuck on _____. Can you help?"
5. Listen carefully. Write it down if you might forget.

When Someone is Bugging You

1. Check: Am I in Yellow or Red zone? (Regulate FIRST)
2. Decide: Is this on PURPOSE or an accident?
3. If accident: Let it go. Say "It's okay" to yourself.
4. If on purpose: "I feel ____ when you _____. Please stop."
5. If it continues: Walk away and tell a trusted adult.
6. NEVER match their energy. Your calm is your superpower.

Parent Quick-Start Guide

Start here. Add tools one at a time.

WEEK 1: Foundation

Set up the One Binder. Print the Weekly Planner and the Morning + Evening Routine checklists. Introduce ONE tool at a time.

WEEK 2: Homework

Add the Homework Tracker and 5-Minute Plan. Introduce Focus Sprints (10 on / 3 off). Print the Dopamine Menu for break choices.

WEEK 3: Submission

Introduce the Done & Dusted system. Attach the Bag Tag to the backpack zipper. Practice the Backpack Check every evening.

WEEK 4: Self-Regulation

Add the Zone Check-In chart. Practice Brain Breaks during homework transitions. Start the Level Up reward chart.

ONGOING: Social & Emotional

Introduce Social Scripts as needed. Use the Growth Mindset journal weekly. Fill out Success Weekly logs with the teacher.

Teacher Implementation Cheat Sheet

1. Daily Check-In (30 seconds)

At the end of class, walk to the student's desk and ask: 'Did you write it in the planner? Show me.' Initial the planner if correct.

2. Materials Check

Before dismissal, use the Backpack Checklist prompt: 'Do you have everything you need to do tonight's homework?'

3. Modified Assignments

If a student with ADHD consistently takes 3x longer on homework, reduce volume (e.g., odd problems only) while maintaining rigor.

4. Focus Sprints in Class

Allow the student to use a visual timer on their desk. 10 minutes of focused work, then a 2-minute 'Brain Break' from the card deck.

5. Submission Ritual

Designate a specific turn-in bin and require the student to hand-deliver work AT THE START of class, not 'whenever.'

6. Success Weekly Log

Fill out the teacher section every Friday. Focus on SKILL GROWTH, not grades. One success + one focus area.

7. Substitute Teacher Note

If you're absent, leave a note: '[Student] uses a planner system and needs a 30-second check-in before dismissal.'
